

Mountain Family Center

2025 - Year in Review

Every year presents its own unique challenges and successes, and 2025 was no different. While changing economic conditions and an unseasonably warm winter tested our community, these circumstances also inspired remarkable collaboration and community engagement. Mountain Family Center (MFC), alongside our partners, donors, and volunteers, worked tirelessly to adapt resources and find new ways to support local families.

Through commitment and collective effort, we not only met the year's challenges but strengthened the very connections that define our community.

MFC concluded 2025 with gratitude and pride for what we were able to accomplish working together to serve ~3,800 unique individuals annually.

Organizational Successes

The Grand County community is nothing less than GRAND.

Economic woes can sometimes lead donors to become risk adverse and minimize charitable contributions. That is NOT how Grand County donors operate. Mountain Family Center supporters instead opened their hearts and gave generously.

During the federal government shutdown and into the holiday season, MFC received mass quantities of donated non-perishable food and necessities in our food pantries. In total, we received 65,867 pounds of food pantry items in 2025. Thanks to a generous donation from Grand Foundation and Graham Powers, we were able to distribute grocery gift cards to individuals whose SNAP benefits (formerly known as food stamps) were on hold for the first two weeks of November. MFC gave away the following to SNAP recipients:

$3,350 in grocery gift cards to 81 individuals in Grand County

$4,000 to 97 individuals in Jackson County

Additionally, not only did our 2025 Colorado Gives Day fundraiser exceed our goal of $60,000, at $81,489, MFC sponsors donated more than any previous Colorado Gives Day.

POINT Volunteer Platform

Volunteers are the heartbeat of any nonprofit organization. From hosting food drives, to accepting donations in the Main Street Thrift Store, to stuffing backpacks with school supplies and acting as Santa's elves at the Grand County North Pole, volunteer opportunities are plentiful at Mountain Family Center. To help staff coordinate volunteers and track the economic benefit of our volunteer base, MFC joined POINT Volunteer Management Platform. By using POINT, volunteers are able to view and sign up for upcoming volunteer opportunities. In 2025, MFC had 131 volunteers | 49 events | 797 hours | $26,680 economic impact

Hunger Relief

Food Pantries

MFC operates food pantries in Granby, Fraser, Kremmling, and Walden. In the summer, we also have a mobile food pantry. In 2025, MFC food pantries had 15,539 visits. In addition to non-perishable food items, residents can also take home fresh fruits and vegetables, meat, eggs and milk; breads and sweets; as well as hygiene products and diapers. In partnership with Grand County Public Health, MFC proudly grew and distributed over $1,300 worth of fresh, organically grown produce to families participating in WIC and other members of the community. Thanks to Colorado Garden Foundation, we were able to expand our growing space in 2025.

School Fruit Stands & Food Totes

To ensure that every child has proper nutrition while in and away from school, MFC funds school fruit stands and food totes. Totes are also available during summer break.

$1,025 of Fruit Provided Weekly
43,189 Food Totes Provided

Eat Play Grow

Providing hunger relief isn't just about providing food to people, it is also about teaching the next generation how to live happy, healthy lives. Eat Play Grow is an 11-week series that teaches children ages 6 and younger about the importance of making positive choices in areas that affect health the most: nutrition, physical activity and sleep. MFC taught Eat Play Grow in the Spring of 2025 at both the Church of Eternal Hills Preschool and Granby Elementary Preschool where, for the first time, we offered simultaneous Spanish interpretation!

Direct Client Services - Housing & Utilities

Mountain Family Center's Housing and Utility Assistance programs help residents stay in their homes, keep the lights on and their houses warm. These programs provide assistance with paying for rental/mortgage payments or utility bills that are past due or that cannot be paid for the upcoming month. Clients may only seek help with utilities and/or rental assistance once every 12 months.

117 Housing Payments Made | 129 Utility Bills Paid | 30 Granby Water Assistance Bills Paid
125 Additional Direct Client Services Provided

Starting in 2026, families and individuals applying for rental or mortgage assistance will begin working more closely with our case workers to identify personal goals and explore additional supports. By focusing on the unique strengths and resilience of the families we serve, we aim to create lasting, positive change that extends well beyond immediate assistance.

Building strength and developing self-reliance for individuals and families through responsive and collaborative services.

Additionally, on September 21, Grand Latin hosted a Hispanic Heritage Celebration in Granby, attended by more than 200 people.
