Grand Restaurants Food Security Fund

Fact:

Food pantry visits continue to climb.
Mountain Family Center's food pantry served approximately 12,000 visits in 2023, 13,500 in 2024, and nearly 15,500 in 2025 as food costs continue to rise.

Why was the Grand Restaurants Food Security Fund created?

Restaurants are at the heart of feeding our community. This fund allows local restaurants to work together to ensure Grand County families have consistent access to nutritious food throughout the year.

How does my monthly donation help?

Your recurring contribution helps Mountain Family Center:

- Purchase staple food items
- Fill seasonal shortages
- Provide more fresh and nutritious food
- Respond quickly when demand increases
- Keep pantry shelves stocked year-round

Where does the money go?

Every dollar stays in Grand County and supports Mountain Family Center's Food Pantry, serving local individuals and families experiencing food insecurity.

How much food does my donation provide?

Approximately $75 provides one week of groceries for a family of four.

Can I change or cancel my monthly gift?

Yes. Monthly gifts can be adjusted or canceled at any time.

What recognition do participating restaurants receive?

Participating restaurants receive:

- Recognition as a Fund Partner
- Quarterly program updates
- Optional co-branded materials
- Founding Member recognition if joining during the inaugural campaign

Why monthly giving?

Monthly gifts allow Mountain Family Center to plan ahead, purchase food in bulk, respond to emergencies, and provide consistent support throughout the year.

Is my donation tax-deductible?

Yes. Contributions are made to Mountain Family Center, a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit, and are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

How can my restaurant encourage others to join?

Display your certificate and/or decal, share quarterly social media posts, and tell your customers you're helping feed local families.
